MEMORIES OF 1953

Dedication

DEDICATION

JOHN FLORENCE

We, the Senior Class of 1953, dedicate our annual to our new superintendent, Mr. John Florence, who has done much to improve our attitude toward school. As our class advisor, he has guided us through a successful year. Along with this dedication, we extend to him our best wishes for his continued success throughout the coming years.

Class History

We, as Seniors, find it pleasant to bring to memory reminiscences of the happy days spent in Spencer School.

In September, 1941, as a class of shy, but excited, children we entered elementary school. We were anxious to turn the first leaf of our new adventure in live. Since that time many leaves have been turned, and here we are ready to leave high school and go out on our own. There are only nine of the original members in the graduating Class of '53. They are: Jeannine Breyley; Maude Brinker; Carl Clement; Loretta Browand, secretary; Patricia Croskey; Joe Giar, president; Phyllis Goehring, treasurer; Lavonne Sooy; and David Reisinger. Other members of the class are: David Allemang; Charles Dennison; Loren Worcester; Lester Fortune; Paul Kari; Bessie Moran; Dwight Florence, board of control; Dean Leiby; Charles Miller; James Porter, vice president; Charles Roub; and Ruth Ryan.

When we entered our freshman year we found we had acquired several new members since launching on our adventure. They were: Charles Dennison, Paul Kari, Dean Leiby, Jim Porter, Charles Miller, Ruth Ryan, Glenn Cantleberry, and Lloyd Gott.

In our freshman year, Mr. Walrath was our class advisor. That year was made exciting by the purchase of school jackets. We lost a member, Lloyd Gott.

In our sophomore year we gained two members: Loren Worcester and David Allemang.

When we entered our junior year, we found we had gained three members: Bessie Moran, Lester Fortune, and Charles Roub. We also lost two members, Glenn Cantleberry and Larry Rook.

This was a big year for us with many activities.

Our junior class play was "If Mother Only Knew."

We selected our class colors, blue and white; class flower, red rose.

Our junior-senior banquet was held at the Pine Tree Tavern with a choice of fish, steak, or chicken dinner. After the banquet, we went to Lakewood Little Theater and saw "Petticoat Fever."

Our class rings were purchased from Herff-Jones Company.

We sponsored a St. Patrick's Day dance in the high school auditorium.

Upon entering our senior year, we welcomed another new class member, Dwight Florence, son of our new principal, Mr. John Florence.

Our senior class play "Just Ducky" was given to a full house November 14.

On the evening of the homecoming, the seniors held a dance in the high school auditorium, during which Mary Wilch, the homecoming queen, was crowned.

Peck's Studio, Akron, took our senior pictures which were received early in December. The trip to Akron also included an especially planned tour of the Quaker Oats Company.

Another money making activity was a fish fry held December 6, at the Town Hall.

The last leaf in our class history was turned by taking a trip to Washington, D. C.

Class Prophecy

The other day after the pangs of hunger had forced me to leave the luxury of the baggage car in which I had been traveling, I made my way to the back door of the nearest house to see if I could beg enough food to satisfy my hunger. Much to my surprise, the door was opened by an old classmate, Pat Croskey, who proceeded to tell me how she was forced to master the art of being an old maid because she just couldn't make up her mind as to whom she wanted. After she had finished her sob story, she told me how our old classmates had fared, and this I shall pass on to you.

Jeannine Breyley, who thought it would be better to break two hearts than one, had married her "kissin" cousin from Tennessee.

Maude Brinker, who always had a burning desire to be a politican, has finally reached the height of her career as the first woman mayor of Pawnee.

Loretta Browand, who seems to be naturally attracted to truck drivers, has her own chain of truck stops.

Carl Clement has taken over Red Ingraham's truck line and patronizes Loretta's Truck Stop.

Charles Dennison started on the road to fame when he recently made his television debut on Uncle Jake's Show.

Lester Fortune owns the largest scrap yard in the State. (Of course, there is only one in the State.)

Dwight Florence has a band which would make John Phillip Sousa hang his head in shame.

Phyllis Goehring has talked her way into the hearts of American parents by volunteering to tell their children about the "birds and the bees."

Paul Kari, who has always shown a great interest in Fairy (Johnson), is now a famous writer of "Fairy Tales."

Charles Miller is now playing the part of the fat man on radio.

Bessie Moran and Ruth Ryan, who were always good friends in school, have married into feudin', hillbilly families and are now feudin', fightin', and fussin'.

Jim Porter, who has always had a weakness for eighth grade girls, is now an eighth grade teacher.

David Reisinger, the romeo of the Senior Class, made a fortune on the stock market; but the women finally got the best of him, so now he spends his time with a tin cup on a street corner.

Charles Roub and Loren Worcester, who were always partners in crime during school, are now our senators from Ohio.

Lavonne Sooy, at the age of 67, hasn't made up her mind (what mind) whether to be a movie star or an opera singer.

David Allemang, who was known around the county for his coon hounds, is now owner of the largest kennel in River Corners.

Class Will

I, David Allemang, will all my good grades to Harold Jones.

I, Jeannine Breyley, will my appetite for second helpings in the cafeteria to Nancy Brinker who already shows the same likeness for food.

I, Maude Brinker, will my ability to get caught while "snitching" a bite in the cafeteria to ones who have a good start, the eight grade girls.

I, Loretta Browand, will all my sweaters (green ones) to Mary Avery.

I, Carl Clement, will my ability to get home before four o'clock to one who has a need for it, Donald Dawley.

I, Pat Croskey, will my slim figure to one who could use it, Shirley Moore.

I, Charles Dennison, leave my tenor voice to one who will need it, Philip Firestone.

I, Dwight Florence, will my curly hair to one who has a hard time keeping a Toni, Danny Spies.

I, Lester Fortune, leave my desk to the next lucky boy or girl who has the opportunity to sit still and study.

I, Joe Giar, leave my sport's ability to a future star of Spencer, Herbert Leninginger.

I, Phyllis Goehring, will my white blouse to one who already has it, Pat Seeley.

I, Paul Kari, leave my ability to give the teachers a hard time to one who has a good start, Danny Spies.

I, Charles Miller, leave some of my height to one who will probably need it in the future, Alex Moran.

I, Bessie Moran, will my quietness in classroom and study halls to one who has a good start, Janet Lieby.

I, Jim Porter, in my last will and testament leave all my unsigned excuses to Jim (Steve) Dennison.

I, David Reisinger, being sound in body and mind (although it sometimes appears otherwise) leave my ability to always think of an answer to a friend in need, Joe Ingraham.

I, Ruth Ryan, will my teeth to one who needs them, Dawn Porter.

We, Charles Roub and Loren Worecester, will our inability to think of a class will to anyone in the Class of '54, who might find himself in our position.

I, Lavonne Sooy, being in sound mind and body do will my ability to keep everybody laughing all the time to someone who never smiles, Frances Beach.

To the Juniors, we leave our rights to be first in line at the cafeteria next year.

To the Sophomores, we leave our ability to think of an excuse (legally or otherwise) to get out of school for a day and to fight for back seats on the bus coming home from games.

To the Freshmen, we leave our quiet ways and good manners.

To the Eighth Grade, we leave our ability to always get blamed for anything that happened in school whether we did it or not.

To the Seventh Grade, we leave our good behavior.

To the Teachers, we leave our sympathy and good will, which they will sorely need in dealing with our dear classmates, the Juniors.

THIRD ROW: Jim Thornton, Paul Lowery, Lynn Beachler, Joe McReynolds, Ronald Larkey, Robert Gallatin, Harold Clement.

JUNIORS

Only nine members of our class that entered school in the fall of 1943 remain. They are: Marlene White, Barbara Wolf, Naomi Thompson, Patricia Gallatin, Karen Auble, Leonard Hall, Francis Lowery, Donald Billman, and Carol Williams. In 1944, Donald Dawley and Carl Galt joined our group. Since entering high school, Harold Jones, Harold Gott, Mary Allemang, and Mary Wilch have become members, and we now number fifteen happy-go-lucky juniors.

Mrs. Alice Dawley is our advisor. Our class officers are as follows: Karen Auble, president; Donald Dawley, vice president; Carol Williams, secretary; Barbara Wolf, board of control; Patricia Gallatin and Carl Galt, recreation; Mary Wilch, treasurer.

We are proud of our basketball, football, and baseball players and cheerleaders. There were also many of the class members in band and chorus.

A big event this year was the receiving of our class rings--which we think are nicer than those worn by our upper-classmates(?).

Putting on the junior class play was a lot of fun as well as a huge success. The name of it was "That's Our Boy." Mrs. Alice Dawley directed the play.

The junior-senior banquet was greatly enjoyed by everyone, and we are now looking forward to being the guests of honor at a similar banquet next year. (Sophomores, please take note.)

SOPHOMORES

The class of '55 has twenty-four members. Our advisor is Miss Swisher. Our class officers are: James Armstrong, president; Dorene Dawley, vice president; Nancy Myers, secretary; Rita Jackson, treasurer; Nancy Brinker, board of control.

We have quite a few members in special and mixed chorus. Rita Jackson and Mary Avery are in girls' ensemble. Harold Clement is in the boys' octet.

Ronald Larkey is on the varsity basketball team. Danny Spies, Jimmy Thornton, Bob Mantz, Joe McReynolds, and Paul Lowery are on the reserve team. We, also, had some on the football team.

We have eight members in the band.

Eileen Heilman and Marla Knepper are reserve cheerleaders.

Some of the clubs our members participate in are: Hi-Y, Y-Teens, and F. T. A.

FRESHMEN

FIRST ROW: Sandra Breyley, Dawn Porter, Ann White, Bernita Wolf, Beverley Thomas, Francis Beach, Shirley Moore, Elsie Cantleberry, Mildred Sooy, Lois Florence, Jane Shultz.

SECOND ROW: Nelson Waltz, Irving Barrett, Jim Giar, Allen Weidrick, Philip Firestone, Orman McVicker, Robert Yunker, Dale Wolfe, Mr. Walrath.

THIRD ROW: Larry Nixon, Eugene Williams, Dale White, Gary Boone, Carl Herman, Kenneth Fortune, Walter Gallatin.

Eighth Grade

FIRST ROW: Carol Wolf, Annette Browand, Patricia Dalgleish, Marilyn Dennison, Loretta Williams, Karen Wolfe, Jeannine Converse.

SECOND ROW: Imogene Tenney, Sonya Stuart, Beverly Rowe, Barbara Brown, Donna Ody, Jeannette Pappas, Barbara Lepka, Mr. Sellers.

THIRD ROW: Richard Lepka, Ronald Roub, Loren Mantz, Wayne Boone, Gerald Clark, Larry Neptune, James Eglin, Francis Coble.

FRESHMEN

In 1950, a group of "bright" young students came into the high school building to begin their journey through junior high. Mrs. Alice Dawley was our first class advisor. We struggled through the seventh grade and then through the eighth grade with Mrs. Blanche Hoffman as our advisor.

Our junior high basketball team was one of the best--at least we thought so.

Now, as freshmen, we hope to go through high school and graduate.

We have not only lost some of our classmates, but we have also gained some. All in all, most of the ones who started here in the first grade are still with us. Here are the ones who had the honor of being elected officers this year: Lois Ann Florence; president; Philip Firestone, vice president; Ann White, secretary; Dawn Porter, treasurer; Sandra Breyley and Orman McVicker, recreation; and Jane Shultz, board of control.

Nothing very exciting has happened in junior high, but we hope our high school record will be one that will long be remembered.

Eighth Grade

We started out the year by electing officers: President, Wayne Boone; vice president, Donna Ody; secretary, Karen Wolf; treasurer, Beverly Rowe; board of control, Barbara Brown.

The addition of Imogene Tenney and Charlotte Hilger makes twenty-three members in our class.

The junior high basketball players from the eighth grade are: Wayne Boone, Loren Mantz, Ronald Roub, Gerald Clark, and Eric Nelson. The junior high cheerleaders are from our class, also. They are: Donna Ody, Barbara Brown, and Beverly Rowe.

Three members of our class play in the school band, Pat Dalgliesh, Beverly Rowe, and Loren Mantz. Two other members are majorettes. They are Loretta Williams and Carol Wolfe.

November 7, we had a class party at the roller skating rink, in Medina. Mr. Sellers was our chaperone. We are hoping to have another one soon.

Seventh Grade

FIRST ROW: Donna Rook, Ann Stuart, Betty Szaniszlo, Mary Ann Giar, Jayne Rook, Kathleen Bowen, Gypsy Pervier, Beverly Heilman, Delores Cantleberry, Phyllis Leininger, Donna Norris

SECOND ROW: Mr. Osipov, Robert Carter, Alex Moran, Clayton Tenney, Donald Brouse, Larry Clifford, Ned Heilman, Phillip White, Arthur Walkden

THIRD ROW: Keith Pervier, Jay Miller, Dan Ross, Burt Heilman, Ronald Walters, Clinton Sprinkle, Billy Dobson, Robert Beach

Seventh Grade

There are twenty-five students in our class. Mr. Michael Osipov and Mr. James E. Seiple were our class advisors. Our class officers are: President, Jay Miller; vice president, Mary Ann Giar; Secretary, Donna Rae Rook; treasurer, Larry Clifford; board of control, Ronnie Walters.

We had a bake sale and it turned out very satisfactorily.

We have a few boys on the junior high basketball team. They are as follows: Ronnie Walters, Jay Miller, Donald Brouse, Arthur Walkden, Larry Clifford, and Alex Moran.

Most of the class participates in junior high special chorus.

Some of the girls are taking baton lessons.

We enjoyed a class party at Skateland in Medina.

We received our new suits this year and we surely needed them. We played six games this year, unfortunately, we lost them all. We are looking forward to a more successful season next year. Charles Roub received the only serious injury this season. There are discussions of building stands and putting up lights for football and baseball. We sure could use a lighted field. The present field is the topic of discussion of every team that has played at Spencer.

The games played this year are listed below:

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Spencer's record does not look too good this year. But despite loss after loss, the school was back of the team in every game. The team played its best, and Spencer really showed its school spirit, but that was not enough; we closed the season with one win and fourteen losses. We drew Liverpool in the tournament and were defeated, 74 to 46.

Here are the scores of the games played this year.

DATE	SCHOOL	WHERE	WE	THEY

BASEBALL

FIRST ROW: Carl Clement, Carl Galt, Ted Spies, Eugene Williams, Jim Giar.
THIRD ROW: Irving Barrett, Harold Clement, Orman McVicker, Philip Firestone, Garry Boone, Robert Yunker, Walter Gallatin.

As our annual goes to press, baseball practice is just beginning. Prospects for a good season are evident. Mr. Seiple, our new baseball coach, is in charge of the team, and he feels that this year's club will win many of the season's games.
